Up to 1 o'clock this afternoon eightyone contractors had signed the agreement and given bonds.

Secretary Witkowsky, of the Coat Contractors' Mutual Protective Association, declared that no members of that organisation had signed the Brotherhood's agreement, but the Settlement Committee informed a reporter for "The Evening World" that several of the Association contractors had signed, with the understanding that their names were not to be divulged.

The big mass-meeting in Cooper Union Hall last night was considered by the Brotherhood leaders a grand success in every particular.

The statement that the strike was precipitated by the action of the Contractors' Association earlier than expected was reiterated in a strong resolution, and the order calling the strike was indorsed and deafening cheers received the sentiment. Three bundent organization had signed the Brother

The Athletic Committee of the New York Athletic Club, had already engaged their passages by the steamship Aurania of the Cunard Ene.

The Aurania is expected to leave Englang Aug. 31, with the London Athletic Club team on board, and Mr. Williams says that if there is any wrangle between the members it is on account of the struggle to see which will be sent over.

the struggle to see which will be sent over.

Mr. Williams said that everything is being arranged for the meeting and that nothing has been left undone to give the visiting team a most enjoyable time during their stay in this city.

The Committee is not a bit alarmed about the reported trouble, and is confident that the London Athletic Club will send a team to this country in September, just the same.

All the Mercury Foot athletes are training industriously at Travers Island for the games under the watchful eye of Mike Murphy, who reports that the athletes are in excellent condition.
